Just Think This Over

By Bill Pierce
Special Staff Writer of Antioch News

SOMETHING to sell and we're all salesmen! Everybody's selling something. You're doing it and we're doing it. We of Chain O' Lakes are interested in seeing our great community develop to the fullest extent. When the Great Creator gave us these beautiful lakes, this rolling countryside, these scenic marvels, it was His intent that everybody should enjoy them. Things are beautiful only so humans may get pleasure from them.

We are prone to take these wonders as a matter of course. We see our lakes every day and often think that perhaps they are commonplace. But thousands come to see our lotus flower and to visit the land where Indian history was made. There must be something here.

Our summer season opens officially one week from today. Our combined efforts can make this season a prosperous one for us and an interesting one for our guests. Chain O' Lakes is the happy vacation land of Northern Illinois.

We are privileged to sell happiness to the thousands of city folks cooped up throughout the winter.

Chain O' Lakes is an honest to goodness product. The buyer gets value received.

Let's sell our paradise to the world!

Sound Amplifiers and Flood Lights Installed at Pop- ular Dance Place

PEPPY MUSIC TO FEATURE OPENING NEXT WEDNESDAY

Many improvements at the Channel Lake pavilion will be noted by visitors who attend the opening of that popular amusement place next Wednesday night, May 29.

Two of the most notable improvements installed recently to add to the pleasure and convenience of patrons, are the addition of powerful flood lights to illuminate the parking spaces, and the installation of amplifiers that will carry even the softest music to all parts of the big pavilion. Then there has been the usual spring clean-up, painting and decoration work that always makes the place clean and inviting.

For the opening night, Manager Homer Winch has secured the services of a very popular orchestra, Doug Peppard and his Northwestern Troubadours, who will play also on Decoration day night, and every Saturday and Sunday night and Sunday afternoon thereafter until June 16.

The following Saturday, June 22, the regular summer season opens with Bruce Wertz and his famous recording artists, the Illinois Troubadours, who will play every night and every Sunday afternoon until Labor day.

MOTOR BOAT MUFFLER BILL PASSES HOUSE

Representative Lyons Intro- duces Measure To Stop Cut-Out Nuisance

The motor boat muffler bill, a measure introduced in the House of Representatives at Springfield by Richard J. Lyons at the request of the Chain of Lakes association of Lake county, has passed the House, according to a telegram to the Antioch News at one o'clock today.

The matter of the motor boat cut-out nuisance, that has been a source of annoyance to residents in the Chain O' Lakes for years, was brought to the attention of the assemblymen at a meeting of the Chain of Lakes association held here April 13; and it was at that time Representative Lyons made the promise to see that a bill prohibiting the nuisance was introduced in the House. "Dick" has made good his word, and he says he will follow the measure up with the idea of having it okayed by the senate.

HOME EC CLUBS PLAN HOLDING ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAM ON TUESDAY

Kenosha County Groups Are To Convene In Bris- tol May 28

Home Economic groups of Kenosha county carried on under the directions of E. V. Ryall, county agent, and Miss Edna Huffman, nutrition specialist from the Home Economics Extension department of the University of Wisconsin will hold a County Achievement Day in the Community hall, Bristol, Tuesday, May 28. An all day program beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. and lasting until 4 o'clock in the afternoon has been arranged.

Mrs. Nellie Kedzie Jones, state leader of Home Economics extension, will deliver the address of the day. Miss Gladys Meloche, who carried on two years of Clothing Extension work in Kenosha county, will talk on "Household Conveniences" and there will be a demonstration by Miss Leone Heuer of the Certo company.

Each group with which Miss Huffman has worked will put on a stunt. The chairman of each group will give a report showing what has been accomplished by her group.

Miss Huffman has asked to attend all men and women interested in this work.

Home Economics Extension work carried on in co-operation with the University of Wisconsin is conducted on what is known as the Local Leader plan. Two local leaders from each of five to seven communities meet with the specialist of the university and receive the subject matter together with such printed matter or patterns as may be useful in carrying the material back to local groups. These leaders then work through local Home Economics clubs, and in this way several hundred women have the advantages of this work rather than the relatively few the Home Economics specialist could reach personally.

by state game commissions and sportsmen's organizations for hatching under hens this spring. Those who are informed as to the food habits and other requirements of rearing game birds in captivity are having marked success.

However, better luck is experienced in the case of the ringnecks, than with the more delicate quail. Where there is sufficient land, the pheasant chicks and the foster mother are transferred, immediately after hatching, to a brooder coop in which the mother is kept but from which the chick gains exit, through slats on the front of the coop. This coop is placed beside a strip of ground sowed with corn, buckwheat and sunflowers to provide cover and, later, food for the young birds. But for the first few weeks, the youngsters are kept on a special diet which is changed from time to time as the chicks become older.

HintsHints and Helps
Show How Stains
May Be Removed

MUD stains (Colored Goods)—Let the mud dry thoroughly, and then remove as much as possible by brushing. When fully dry cover with a mixture of salt and flour and keep in a dry place.

If the stains are extensive place garment in a large paper flour sack with a quantity of salt and flour well mixed, shake vigorously, tie up the sack, and allow it to hang behind the stove for a few days. Afterwards shake out the dust and press.

Mud Stains (White Goods)—Dip the mud stains in kerosene before putting them in the boiler. Add kerosene to the boiling water.

To take Iron Rust out of any white goods, dissolve 5 cents' worth of oxalic acid in about 3 teacups of warm rain water, let stand 24 hours. If there are still acid crystals in bottom of bottle, pour off clear water and acid and use that. Pour liquid through the strainer and be sure and put in sun; if stains do not disappear repeat until they do. Be sure and thoroughly rinse the acid out immediately after the stain disappears. May be used on the finest fabric, but be sure and have in the open air and in the sunlight. Ink spots may be removed in the same way.

Salt and vinegar will remove tea stains from china.

To take berry stains out of table linen, pour boiling water through the stain before being wet with soapy water.

Salt rubbed on the black spots on dishes will remove them, and salt placed over a fresh claret stain on table linen will assist it to disappear when washed.

It is said that salt placed under baking tins in the oven will prevent their contents from scorching on the bottom.

To clean ink stains from the fingers, rub spots with a sulphur match, then wash in soap.

If soot falls upon the carpet or rug, do not attempt to sweep until it has been covered thickly with dry salt. It can then be swept up properly and not a stain or smear will be left.

niture caused by heat or water, hold a hot iron near them, but not near enough to burn or scorch.

Or, if the stain is obstinate, cover with baking soda and hold a hot iron close to the spot, taking care not to scorch or burn the wood. Repeat if necessary.

After using any of the above, wipe the spot dry, apply furniture oil, and polish with damp chamomile or silk or linen cloth. Do not allow alcohol, turpentine, camphor or similar detergents to remain on a polished surface.

To Remove Spots on Oilcloth—Anything hot placed on oilcloth turns it white. To remove these spots rub with alcohol and polish with a dry cloth.

To Remove Grease—To prevent floor grease from sinking into the floor, mop cold water on it with a cloth to harden it. Scrape off what is on the surface with a dull knife. Remove the stain with a wet cloth sprinkled with baking soda.

Colors On Outside
Are As Important
As Inside House

THE houses we live in are in the main simple arrangements of a few geometrical forms, predetermined by the little varying requirements of domestic life, to a monotonous result to which size, material and color are the only available reliefs. Size is comparative and materials are limited and it is only in the use of color that the architect and owner find opportunity for imaginative expression unrestricted by terms of bricks, beams and cost. It is an opportunity which they should not neglect.

The color combinations of our houses must be planned primarily with an eye to the architectural design. The dark buff body of your "castle" might be set off by the vivid orange of the shutters. White used on the door, gives another point of interest. The trim, also in pure white, helps outline the dormer windows and emphasizes the details of the entrance. A brown roof will set off the whole scheme.

With the progress made by present-day paint chemists, prepared paint today not only protects the surface it covers, but also puts at your command an almost unlimited choice of colors for creating or revivifying the exterior decorative scheme. With a little pleasant thought, any man or woman can choose and combine exterior colors which increase the attractiveness and the "livable" quality of the home.

Makers of History

ON Memorial Day we pay homage to the heroes of the past. And we take thought of our own past in carrying on their work.

The influence of great men on history is important. But it is the common folks, sometimes the humblest; mothers and fathers; the ordinary folks of this work-a-day world—who really shape fundamental human destiny.

So we are all writing history every day. May our work be worthy of the heritage of those whose memories we revere.

ALL ABOUT WHAT THE LITTLE CHILDREN ARE DOING IN ANIMAL WORLD

BY V. LUDEL BODEN

All the older animal boys have lots of fun at school. They play baseball, football, marbles, leap frog and ever so many other things. The eighth grade boys and the seventh grade boys always have contests. Sometimes the eighth grade boys win—sometimes they don't.

The other morning the boys were playing baseball. Johnny Ape is captain of the seventh grade team and Johnny's cousin, Billy Monkey, is captain of the team which is made up of eighth grade boys. Well, the score was 2 to 2 when the school bell rang and the boys had to quit playing.

"Game will be finished this afternoon," Johnny Ape shouted to the boys on his team.

"We'll play 'er off this afternoon," Billy Monkey told his boys. So it was agreed that the game would be finished in the afternoon.

The boys were so excited about the game that they could hardly work all morning. Miss Pupples, the teacher, said:

"Boys, boys! You must pay attention. Why are you all so fidgety-fidgety?"

Johnny Ape explained about the baseball game, and a great many teachers would have scolded, but Miss Pupples did not. Try to guess what she did! She called all of the eighth grade boys and girls and the eighth grade teacher, Miss Doggie, into the seventh grade room. Everyone wondered what was going to happen.

"Shhhh!" Miss Pupples exclaimed and clapped her hands when she wanted the boys and girls to be quiet. "I have an idea which I hope you will all like."

"What is it?" Miss Doggie asked, for Miss Doggie was just as excited as were the boys and girls.

"Well," Miss Pupples exclaimed,

"All these boys like contests so much, and all of the seventh grade boys think they are better athletes than the eighth grade boys, and the eighth grade boys think they are better than the seventh grade boys, so we'll just find out. Next Monday let's have a big field meet."

"Goodie, goodie!" shouted all of the boys and girls.

"But," Miss Pupples warned, "you will all have to promise that you will work very, very hard on your lessons until Monday. You can practise ball after school. I will have a great big surprise contest for you, too. The field meet will last all day."

"Where! Joy!" everyone shouted. This time they shouted louder and longer than before, because they had never dreamed that there would be no school all day long.

Oh, the children are so excited. The girls are going to have a May-pole dance. The mothers and fathers of the boys and girls are going to the field meet and the mothers are planning to serve a big picnic lunch at noon. And next week, you shall hear all about the field meet and all about the big surprise contest of Miss Pupples. What do you guess is the surprise?

Renewing the interest in the Wilmot Alumni association, members of the association and the mothers of the seniors fostered a banquet in the school gymnasium Saturday evening. Alumni, members of this year's class, and the mothers of the graduates were among the guests. The tables were decorated with lilies, roses, and lilies of the valley.

Henry Blim, '05, attorney in Chicago acted as toastmaster. The other speakers of the evening were Cyril Dalton, '24; Donald Tyler, '26, and Carroll Weigel, principal. Between courses the guests were entertained by vocal selections by Emerson Schmalfeldt of the class of 1928 and by Norman and Rhoda Jedele who gave a piano and clarinet selection.

After the banquet program, Mrs. Georgia Panknin, past president, took charge of the business meeting. The newly-elected officers are: Cyril Dalton, president; Donald Tyler, vice-president; Rhoda Jedele, secretary; and Bernice Harm, treasurer. Tentative plans were made for the banquet to be held in 1930.

Senior activities are much in prominence at present with preparations for the class play, "Seventeen," class night, and commencement plans occupying much of the time of the graduates. The play will be given in the school gymnasium Friday evening, May 24. Class night is to be held Tuesday, June 11; and commencement exercises will be held Thursday evening, June 13, with Senator Hunt as the speaker.

Fox Lake Has Much to Attract the Vacationist

VILLAGE IS CENTER OF WATER SPORTS AND BOAT RACING

Civic Pride Is Asset; Town Boasts Fine Public School

GOOD GOVERNMENT HELPS REGION'S DEVELOPMENT

(This is the first of a series of feature pages concerning communities reached by THE ANTIOCH NEWS News items from FOX LAKE will appear each week.)

FOX LAKE—without a doubt, one of the most progressive villages in Northern Illinois. A community of wide-awake citizens. A community of boosters. A community where the residents know how to work and how to play. A community of substantial, aggressive residents during the winter months, and in the summer months these same residents form a nucleus around which thousands of city dwellers, seeking pleasure, weave their playhouses—their vacation hours. FOX LAKE!

FOX LAKE is beautifully located on the lake bearing the same name. Winding roads leading to the village and curving through it are beautiful and lend surprising pictures—pictures of water, trees, rolling plains, and gentle hillocks. From almost any view one sees a setting worthy of a picture. Studying the grasses and peeping through the white fences are wealths of flowers and bushes. Boats are like gems on the playful waters. There are many neat and attractive homes and stores. Again—FOX LAKE.

Village Officers
George Hollister is president of the village—village mayor, as it were. Mr. Hollister expects his board to accomplish much during the next year. Other members of the board are L. I. Perry, Joseph Tanel, Frank Gerretsen, Louis Olson, L. Brydges, and Walter Hamberger. Arthur H. Franzen is village clerk and J. D. Riggs is marshal. Board meetings are held the first and third Mondays of each month.

He was commended for his good work, as were also George Schlosser and other members of the publicity committee who attended to the important matter of financing the project.

Coach Service Starts Saturday
Philip Creden, of the Outing and Recreation Bureau, and also advertising manager of the Marigold coach lines, was the first speaker, and his announcement that Antioch to Loop coach service starts Saturday was received with enthusiasm. Mr. Creden supplied all with the new time cards and told how the Chain O' Lakes was being advertised to the limit in Chicago.

Secretary Krahli Commended
At the close of the meeting, C. K. Anderson voiced the sentiment of every club member in commending the effective and unselfish efforts of tary. A. M. Krahli, two years secretary. On behalf of the Club he presented Mr. Krahli with an elegant wrist watch, and also presented a beautiful bouquet of tulips, a gift for Mrs. Krahli. The former secretary was presented with a copy of resolutions, commending him for his service and giving assurance that he carried to his new field of labor with the Pure Milk association the best wishes of his many friends in the lake country.

THEY'RE REAL!

Fox Lake Boys Are Full of Pep, Full of Action, and Full of Talk

Boys will be boys—and Fox Lake boys are real ones. It's quite a sight to see them tumble out of school each afternoon. It can't be that they hurry out because they don't like school—for they tumble into the building in the same way. They are boys full of life—full of action.

William O'Keefe was with the gang. He quieted down long enough for the reporter to ask what the commotion was all about.

"Oh, it's nothin' unusual," he said. "Didja ever see a quiet gang of fellows?" It was admitted that a quiet gang of fellows is far in the background of one's imagination.

Bill introduced the gang—introduced them in a very proper way. There was Nickie Fasatetos, an' John Clark, an' Jack Pike, an' Earl Pearson, an' James Howard, an' Charlie Smith. All the kids are crack marble players, hot baseball players, and oh! how they love the water.

"Wouldn't like to live in a place that didn't have a lake," one of the fellows remarked. Anyway, the fellows were all very polite and very friendly—and very, very noisy.

Landscape Architects Are Working on Plans to Beautify Grounds of Fox Lake School

One hundred pupils are enrolled in the Fox Lake schools at this time, according to Miss Ella Dobrnt, principal.

Distribution among the grades follows: eighth grade, 7; seventh, 10; sixth, 20; fourth, 19; third, 7; second, 13, and first, 14.

All teachers this year were re-elected for next year. They are: primary, Faye Brewer; third and fourth, Nellie Stanton; fifth and sixth, Lureda Eagleson, and seventh and eighth, Miss Dobrnt.

Members of the school board are: L. I. Perry, president; Mrs. Earl Stafford, clerk, and B. L. Denson, director.

Money has been appropriated for the improvement and beautification of the school grounds. The grounds will be graded and have been put in the hands of landscape architects. The Fox Lake school is ideally situated on a knoll and with the beautification of the grounds should be one of the most beautiful schools in the Chain O' Lakes.

It Can't Be Done

SPEED BOAT RECORDS MAY BE BROKEN; FOX LAKE NEXT THURSDAY

Local Organization Is Recognized and Records Will Be Official

RACING PROGRAM IS APPROVED

When speed boat racers push throttles open in the opening regatta of the season at Fox Lake next Thursday afternoon (Decoration day) the pilots will not only be racing for the glory of winning but also for official records that will be recognized in speed boat circles throughout the world.

The Fox River Valley Power Boat association has arranged the best racing program in the history of the Chain O' Lakes, and through affiliation of the local organization and the Outboard Motorboat association with the Mississippi Valley Power Boat association, all records made at the Fox Lake regatta this season will be recognized as official. This fact has given added impetus to the interest in power boat circles in the lakes region, and racing enthusiasts are anticipating a most successful season. A fine three-mile course has been marked off, and over this, many records, both association records and national records, are expected to be shattered during the 1929 season. Generous advertising is expected to draw record crowds to enjoy the regatta.

FOUR SCHOOLS ENTER LAKE VILLA CONTEST

Students from four schools participated in the contests held Friday afternoon: Round Lake, Ellis Schlickemeyer, principal; Fox Lake, Ella Dobrnt, principal; Millburn, Madalyn Sheehan; and the Lake Villa schools.

The winners were as follows:
Spelling: Charlotte Richardson, Round Lake, 99 per cent; Helen Eiter, Fox Lake, 98 per cent; John Edwards, Millburn, 97 per cent; Evor Jensen, Lake Villa, 96 per cent, and Lillian Walk, Fox Lake, 95 per cent.
Arithmetic: Lillian Turner, Round Lake, 96 per cent; Julie Hall, Lake Villa, 84 per cent; Stanley Luzer, Millburn, 83 per cent; Lorrain Hooper, Lake Villa, 80 per cent, and Helen Eiter, Fox Lake, 78 per cent.
Dictionary: Carl Nader, Lake Villa, 100 per cent; Paul Avery, Lake Villa, 99 per cent; Constance Dobbin, Lake Villa, 97 per cent; Alzada Meyers, Fox Lake, 90 per cent, and Julie Peterkort, Round Lake, 85 per cent.

Words Are Simple
The cash prizes have been mailed to the principals of the winning pupils. Speed was the deciding factor in the arithmetic and dictionary tests.

In spelling, the list was of simple words as will be seen by the few most frequently misspelled: almost, their, separate, grammar, ninety and receive. John Edwards met his Waterloo on "portion" and Evor Jensen missed "Tuesday."

The promoter of the penmanship system that is taught in Lake Villa schools by Miss Falch and Mr. Beckwith, Charles A. Faust, was present all of the afternoon visiting penmanship classes, criticizing and commending the work he found. He presented 15 pupils certificates of proficiency. The pupils receiving certificates are:

Veneer Adams, grade 6; Paul R. Avery, Jr., 8; Catherine F. Boehm, 6; Helen R. Buchta, 7; A. Constance Dobbin, 7; Elsie M. Fowles, 5; Bernice Geclias, 6; Julie Hall, 6; Alice L. Kopleira, 7; Evelyn Miller, 8; Lucille J. Pester, 8; Jack Rhoades, 8; Antonio Sciacero, 8; Emily J. Walls, 8; and Dan E. Williamson, 5.

Several Are Mentioned
At 2 o'clock Mr. Faust visited the class conducted by Miss Ruby Falch. He told the children that some of them wrote as well as those in grade eight and better than most pupils in the Chicago public schools.

He made special mention of the writing work done by Jean Cribb, Glenn Gring, Leone Buchta, Betty Reinebach, Bojan Hamlin and George Walker. The specimen of Jean's writing was given first place in his scrap book. The better writers will receive elaborate name cards as reminders of his visit here and of their excellent writing with pencil.

"IT'S 'OKE'"

J. D. Riggs, Village Marshal, Says He Knows a Good Town, And Fox Lake Meets Approval.

Slowly ambling down the main thoroughfare of Fox Lake came a man. A man dressed in blue uniform. A man wearing a shining star. He was J. D. Riggs, village marshal.

"Aha!" said the reporter upon seeing the uniform and knowing that this must be the marshal, "where do you keep yourself? We've been hunting you for ages."

Mr. Riggs laughed—a laugh which certainly is characteristic of the man.

"Funny thing," he said, "girls is always a lookin' for me!"

Mr. Riggs has been marshal seven years and he ought to know all about the town. And he does, too.

"We have a nice town here," he declared enthusiastically. "A mighty good town. It's getting better all the time, too. This isn't any crime center like people used to believe—and like it probably was years ago. Nine out of 10 of our arrests are for speeding and drunkenness. Seldom is there what would be termed 'a terrible crime' committed."

Mr. Riggs said there is no way getting around it, but Fox Lake has wonderful community spirit. People all pull together, he stated. He also boosted the community church of which the Rev. Brand is pastor.

"Such a church is an ad for the village," he said as he walked away. "And a good ad, too."

FOX LAKE STUDENTS WILL GIVE PLAYLET NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT

L. O. Bright Is Chosen As Speaker For Promotion Exercises.

Promotion plans for eighth grade pupils of the Fox Lake school are being anticipated at this time.

A feature of the exercises will be the play, "Sally Ann Finds Herself." The cast is composed of Geraldine Blester as Sally Ann; Helen Eiter as Frances; Bernice Pyle as Esther; Alzada Meyers as Marie; Thomas O'Keefe as Bill; Howard Leedle as Tom; Ila Pearson as Vivian; George Buckhardt as Ted; Romanard Spiczak as Jack, and Helen Howard as Miss Foster.

The story, as the title implies, centers around Sally Ann, a girl who didn't fit in. She couldn't help herself for she was shy, awkward, and didn't seem to understand the gay ways of other girls. Two interests she possessed—a dogged persistency in basketball and a dog-like devotion to Frances, the captain of the basketball team. The loss of a ring throws the suspicion on Frances, and Sally, to save her, confesses the theft. How the ring was found completes the plot. Miss Ella Dobrnt, principal of the school, is directing the play which will be given commencement day, May 28.

L. O. Bright, principal of Antioch Township High school, will be the commencement speaker.

DOCTOR'S INJURIES ARE NOT SERIOUS; RESULT OF MISHAP

Painful cuts and bruises were suffered by Dr. Francis Rollins, Fox Lake, when the Chevrolet coupe he was driving crashed into a boulder in the road Monday night near Libertyville. Dr. Rollins received bruises about the head and a cut in the leg. The car was demolished.

At the time of the accident Dr. Rollins was alone. He had dimmed his lights for an approaching machine, he explained, and did not see a rock which was in the highway.

Mrs. LaPalme to Serve As Head of Fox Lake Woman's Club Again

Regular meetings will not be held until autumn but card parties and a summer bazaar will be sponsored by the club.

"FLU" VICTIM BUILT UP BY NEW KONJOLA

Suffered Fourteen Years From After-effects of Influenza; New Compound Quickly Conquers

"About fourteen years ago I suffered from influenza that left me with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble," said Mr. William E. Caughenbaugh, 226 Bergen avenue, Peoria. "I was unable to control the action of my bladder. During the night my sleep was disturbed at all hours. I had shooting pains through my body. Often I was forced to lay off from work for several days at a time."

"Through the instance and recommendation of friends, I started the Konjola treatment. It made me feel like an entirely different person. I never have irregular kidney action and all pains and soreness have vanished from my body. I work hard and never have any trouble. If anyone doubts this statement I will be only too glad to personally verify it."

Konjola is sold in Antioch at S. H. Reeves' drug store and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

WAUKEGAN BALL CLUB
TO PLAY GRAYSLAKE
SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Grayslake ball fans will have opportunity Sunday to see Commissioner Nicholas M. Keller's Waukegan Ball club cross bats with Grayslake on the Grayslake diamond. The Waukegan club managed by "Tiny" Goodbred, is regarded as one of the fastest ball clubs outside of organized baseball in this section of the country.

Goodbred, a huge pitcher, formerly of the Brooklyn Nationals, who measures 6 feet 4 inches, is a comedian and entertainer of the highest order and regarded by many as on a par with Nick Altrock and Al Schacht. To show how the Waukegan club is regarded on the outside, Iron Mountain, Michigan, has booked them for July 3 and 4, with a $600 guarantee.

Inasmuch as this may be the last time this season that they will appear on the Grayslake diamond, a large crowd is expected from all around Lake county.

The Waukegan Majors have two boys formerly of Round Lake, Libertyville and Grayslake, on their club in Roy Bracher and Ray Baker. Both will be assigned to mound duty Sunday, to divide pitching honors, with possibly the great Goodbred taking a hand in the fracas.

It might also be well to mention that Goodbred is the biggest player that ever played in the major leagues.

There will be a curtain raiser with the North Chicago A. C. and a Grayslake second team commencing at one o'clock.

Nick Keller also announces the arrival from Douglasville, Georgia, of Camp Skinner, who played with the New York Yankees with Babe Ruth and "Ping" Bodie, the Italian outfielder, back in 1920 and 1921, and is still regarded as one of the greatest hitters and fielders in the game.

The Waukegan club is primarily a development organization to promote youngsters into everyday ball and with Goodbred and Skinner in charge of the training, as well as active playing, will give local fandom something to look at.

Third Baseman Orr was sent to Keller by Al Faber from Cascade, City, Iowa, for training, preparatory to entering organized baseball. There are also several other high class Lake county prospects among them that will not be hard to look at.

The Waukegan club carries sixteen players and averages four games per week. The game is called for three o'clock, Daylight Saving time.

The line-up for Sunday's game is as follows:

MAP GIVES BEST
ROUTE TO AUTO
RACES IN INDIANA

They're off! The rapid beats of motors being stretched to the limit are heard in the distance. Soon they appear to be getting closer.... Here they are.... They're gone now.... Another lap.... and so through the day, while the world's fastest automobile pilots compete in the five hundred mile motor classic, an annual event at the Indianapolis speedway, when the largest sporting crowd will fill the great bowl on Decoration Day. For good measure a few thrills are generally thrown in.

For those desiring to make the trip, the touring bureau of the Motor Club of Illinois has prepared the accompanying map and log showing some of the routes that may be taken. Those going by way of Hammond, Indiana, Lafayette and Royaltown will find that the total mileage is 201.1, while another route detailed brings the mileage up to 214.5. This route passes through Chicago Heights, Moneum, Watseka and then east to route 41 where the afore mentioned route is picked up and followed into Indianapolis.

Detailed guides, including highway numbers, towns and mileages from Chicago follow:

ILLINOIS' BUSINESS
PROSPERS REPORTS
THIS YEAR REVEALEvery Department Under
Stratton Shows Marked Increase

Springfield, May 23—Prosperity of the business institutions of Illinois is reflected in the reports of the various departments of Secretary of State William J. Stratton's office for the first four months of the year.

Every department shows a substantial increase both as to the amount of business transacted and fees collected over the same period last year. Notwithstanding this increased activity, the business of the office was transacted with the same dispatch that prevailed under the former secretary of state, Louis L. Emmerson.

The total increase in fees for the first four months of 1929 over that period of 1928 is $1,741,186.41.

Of this increase the automobile department supplies the major portion or $1,561,613.33 while $174,004.78 is credited to the corporation, executive, index and securities departments.

Paid Into Road Fund

The large increase in the automobile department results from a registration of 1,170,033 passenger cars and 168,855 trucks as compared with 1,059,931 passenger cars and 153,845 trucks in the first four months of last year. In the period recorded the Secretary of State has collected $14,444,819.86 in motor license fees alone as compared with $12,902,447.33 in 1928.

All of the funds collected by the automobile department are paid by Secretary of State Stratton directly into the road fund in the state treasurer's office and can be expended by the legislature only for road work. Estimating the automobile department this year will collect $15,000,000 and the average cost per mile of hard road at $30,000 a mile, the collections from this one department of the Secretary's office would build 500 miles of pavement.

Indications Are Good

A healthy business condition also is indicated in the report of the corporation department. In the first four months of 1928 the secretary of state issued articles of incorporation to 2184 domestic corporations and licensed 269 foreign concerns as compared with 2470 domestic concerns and 316 foreign companies authorized to transact business in the same same period this year.

Collections of the department increased $120,000 or $30,000 a month. In addition to the increase in these two major departments, the executive department shows an increase of $1,992, the index department—$185 and the securities department—$6,070.19.

The uniform increases registered in all of these departments indicate a healthy business condition prevails in the state's financial institution.

Suspicious Change

"You can't slight a man twenty-five years," says a philosopher in the American Magazine, "and then decide to turn over a new leaf and greet him like a brother. You may mean to be friendly but the other man will suspect your motives."

That swishing noise you heard the other day was old Ben Franklin, the exponent of thrift, turning over in his grave at the news that an Illinois prohibition agent saved $14,000 last year out of his salary of $2,000.

AND IT'S UP TO US

Too often advertisers feel that the power of the written word is enough to bring people flocking to their doors in a wild clamor for their products. They overlooked the fact that the old adage, "make the best of anything—build the finest mousetrap and the world will beat a path to your door," has a whole lot of truth in it.

We of the Chain O' Lakes have told the world about our wonderful vacation land. We have told it in a glorified way and it is up to us now to take stock of ourselves and try as best we can to live up to what we said of ourselves. Of course, we are not foolish enough to believe that anyone falls for present day advertising hook, line and sinker. Still we must be careful, for some are going to come on our sassy. They are going to come to enjoy this wonderful vacation land and they are going to go back and give their true impressions to their friends who will pass it along to their friends, etc. There is your advertising. It's what they are going to say about Chain O' Lakes that is going to count. We can get by for a time but not for long unless we do the best we can to give the people who visit us full measure. Let's make their vacation enjoyable—make it unforgettable—we can do it. Chain O' Lakes can never be over written up but still there are ways in which vacations can be spoiled.

Let us not make the mistake that all we have to do is let people come here and go about their ways alone. We must guide them—show them how to have a good time and then they will go back to spread the good word that is worth a million dollars to this region.

WILL ANTIOCH CLASSIFY?

This is the open season for adjectives. Cool, green, quiet, shady, beautiful, refreshing, primitive, romantic, comfortable—the alluring words tumble out of the mail in folders, and beckon from the pages of newspapers and magazines. "Come to the woods and lakes and sea," they call. It is time to think of summer resorts of Antioch, Fox Lake, and vicinity.

What do people ask of a summer resort? A poll has been taken among proprietors of such places to determine what features they consider most essential to their success. Meals rank first, reasonably enough, for the "inner man" takes no vacation. Beauty of natural surroundings ranks second. And cleanliness ranks third.

It may be surprising to realize that this vote gives precedence over golfing or fishing facilities, over a quiet environment and a restricted clientele. People want to be comfortable on their vacations, and they can not be comfortable unless they can keep clean. Good food loses its flavor if served on grimy table cloths, in grubby dishes that betray utter carelessness in the kitchen. The ocean may be just outside the door, but a man wants a tub and shower within doors where he can take a real bath. The view of the mountains from the east windows may repay a sunrise awakening, but it must not be obscured by dingy glass and gray curtains. Even those adventurers who announce that they are turning their backs on civilization generally slip a bar of soap and a towel into their packs, and dip into the lake or stream where they make their camp. We can't, after all, take a long enough vacation to go back a thousand years into the Dark Ages. Living in an era of sanitation, we may as well make the best of it. Whether it is a simple farm house, a camp in the woods, or an elaborate hotel, the place where we take a summer outing must be clean as well as beautiful.

WARNING TO CHILDREN

Unknown to thousands of people, especially children, some of the golf balls being used today have an acid placed in the core to give resiliency to the ball. This acid is very dangerous to the eyes, and several reports from throughout the country in the past few years have told of youths cutting into the ball with a knife and when the knife cut into the core this acid exploded or splashed into the eyes of the person holding the ball, and in many instances it has nearly caused complete blindness. If you have children or if you see any one opening a golf ball, you will be doing that person a good turn by warning him of his danger.

You don't have to explain what "call money" is to a man who spends his week's wages playing poker.

Isn't it remarkable how some men think chorus girls may be able to understand them when their wives can't.

A mental expert says that there is very little difference between the man who is sane and the one who is sane. Yes, as in other cases, the big difference is in getting found out.

The average politician's popularity, in these days of changing public opinion, lasts about as long as an amber traffic sign.

British educators are said to be fearful lest American talking pictures shown in their country will ruin the accent of British children. But this isn't anything to worry about. In all of the talkies we have heard it was impossible to locate the "h's" anyhow.

The Duke of Portland, over in England, refused an offer of $145,000 for the famous Portland glass vase. If it were our vase we would sell it before it had a chance to fall down and go boom.

The United States government holds $46,000,000 for government bonds which have forgotten to claim the money. And yet over in Europe they call us a nation of dollar chasers.

The Mexican Revolution is now officially over and we never did learn whether or not anybody got hurt.

Australian schoolboys visiting in Toronto claimed that Australian girls are better looking than girls in the United States and Canada. But it is to be remembered that these boys have to go back to Australia to live.

Isn't it pleasant to wait and wait for a train? Ask Mrs. L. M. Wetzel.

She ought to know. It so seems that last Friday morning Mrs. Wetzel and her son, Jack, were planning to go to Chicago on the excursion trip planned for students and their parents. Well, Jack woke up about 3 o'clock in the morning, and evidently afraid of missing the train turned the clock up about 90 minutes. Shortly before 7 o'clock (by said time-piece,) Mr. Wetzel took his family to the UNION DEPOT in Antioch. There he deposited them. There they waited—waited for 90 minutes.

Everybody get out a shovel! No, we're not going to sling some bunk, but you will want to go out in the back yard and dig after you read this. No—not worms for fishing. Nothing like that. Well, it all started this way. This week W. J. Van Duzer was digging a post hole on his farm situated about one mile north of town. A little less than three feet below the surface his spade hit something hard. Unearthing the object he found a copper nugget weighing about three ounces. The nugget was buried in solid clay. Mr. Van Duzer recalls 30 years ago when he found a great many such deposits while digging a well.

While we are speaking of Mr. Van Duzer we might as well tell the entire story. He was walking down Main street yesterday morning when he saw two children running along the sidewalk—running in child-like fashion, not noticing anybody or anything. As they approached an alley an automobile came rushing out without warning. Mr. Van Duzer pushed the children aside to keep them from getting hurt.

Now the moral of this spiel is—sound the horn before coming out of a driveway. Often one forgets, but forgetting may cost a life.

The Public Service company is missing a good bet. In fact, dollars and dollars which might have filled the company's coffers are scattered among the populace of Antioch. Why didn't the company put seats along Main street where the gas pipes are being laid? If there were seats the dozens and dozens of persons who watch the workmen hour after hour could sit down. Away with the tire-some standing! Who wouldn't pay 25 cents to watch somebody else labor?

Mrs. Harry Stratton has been in the Lake County General hospital the last two weeks recovering from a serious operation.

The Ladies' Aid Sewing club met with Mrs. Swanson Friday evening and gave her a very pleasant surprise, as she was not informed of their intended visit.

We want to make a correction of one of last week's items. A. Jensen, who is well known here as landscape gardener, has purchased the tract of land on Route 21 and south of H. Stratton's, and will use it as a nursery for his rapidly increasing business. Mr. Jensen intends to build a home later.

J. M. Cannon is improving his garage by adding a coat of stucco.

Mrs. Eldon Allen died at the Lake County General hospital. Mr. Allen is clerk at the Dixon store.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walker drove to Chicago Thursday and transacted business.

Mrs. H. L. Miller has been confined to her home by an attack of the flu for the last week, but is now able to be out. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Earl Miller, Chicago, was her guest several days last week, and another son and wife were out Sunday.

Warren Hadad is in Chicago with his grandmother for two weeks.

Miss Fineberg, who has been teaching the Monaville school the last two years, has accepted a position as teacher of the Lotus country school, one of the recently made superior schools of the county.

Ain't Science Wonderful?

Science has made comfort possible for old age. Not so many years ago there was little recreation or amusement for one grown old. Now the tick-tock of the old clock is drowned by the dinner music from a high-priced orchestra; the organ music of a great cathedral, or the chiming of a carillon on Park avenue. But science is not done yet. The things they call television is on its way.—American Magazine.

Japanese Lacquer

Lacquer is one of the most famous of the Japanese arts, and although it has been practiced for centuries, many of the details of the craft are still a secret to all but a few of the native craftsmen, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. It is known that fine gum from the urushi tree furnishes the material for the lacquer varnish, and that sometimes as many as fifty coats are applied on a base of pine or cherry wood.

Among the Missing

Another thing which we imagine is entirely obsolete in this machine age was the emery bag shaped like a strawberry, to take the rust off needles with, and, while of course no one would have any use for it now, it's quite a loss to the world of art.

WISCONSIN FIGHTERS
WILL BOX TOMORROW
NIGHT AT PALACE

Frankie Hughes and Roosevelt Will Stage Wind-up Fracas

"Wisconsin Night" is being observed at the Antioch Palace tomorrow night. The card offers the following bouts:

Frankie Hughes vs. Roosevelt Haines; Alphonse Amzone vs. Jackie Davis; Twain Marks vs. Osmo Backman; Johnnie Hughes vs. Don Conn; Ernie Krotchvil vs. Ted Berg; Karl Ogren vs. Jack Schaeffer; Joe Stowe vs. Joe Drinka. The first bout will start at 8:15 Standard time.

Brown Goes Wild

Seven hundred fans witnessed last week's bouts. The windup was a thriller between Frankie Hughes and Joe Brown. At first it seemed as though Hughes couldn't get going—couldn't get up any steam, but when he finally did—well, there was action aplenty. During the first two rounds Hughes and Brown staged a tit for tat fight, neither gaining much, but in the third Hughes was far superior. Hughes kept up with a hard body and face attack from late in the second round until the final gong. Hughes landed most of his punches, but Brown went wild. It's been a long time since fans were so enthusiastic as they were during the Hughes-Brown contest. They stood up and yelled for a kayo, but Brown held his own and didn't touch the floor.

Oscar O'Hanlon, who has won the favor and admiration of regular attendants at the Palace, beat Jimmy Kerns in three rounds. O'Hanlon did some classic fighting—some of it being like one reads about in sports magazines. This Waukegan High school boy floored his opponent for two counts of eight in the third period. Kerns made attempts to punch, but he was unsuccessful for the most part. It was a left to the solar plexus followed by a solid right hook to the jaw which made Kerns lose his footing each time.

Red Schneider fought miserably in the first round of his fight with Jimmie Raymond, and he wasn't much better in the start of the second period. Then he opened up. Raymond started out at top speed, but he slowed down somewhat when Red began to use a lot of long lefts. These lefts used to good advantage won for him the fight.

Tex Penny won over Don Conn. The fight was not a very good one, and had Conn been up to par he would have won. For some reason he was off form. Penny opened a cut above Conn's left eye early in the first round, but Conn didn't even land a solid punch.

Sure Enough K. O.

A fast right, square on the button, put Jimmie Fay on his floor to the tune of ten counts at the beginning of his second round with Buddy Beyers. Fay has a reputation of being a hard hitter but he didn't display his ability as such.

Carl Ogren fought Johnnie Taylor. Ogren did most all of the fighting, handling Taylor like a rag doll. No one doubted who had won the fight. Just as decisive was the victory Johnny Bena won over Sammy Valos. Valos staged a comeback in the third period, but the comeback wasn't strong enough.

Officials of the evening were: Jabber Young, referee; Ed Cliff, Jr., and Hank Savys, judges; Herman Schaeffer, timekeeper; Heinie Wallenwein, announcer; Dr. H. F. Beebe, attending physician, and F. W. Currie, A. A. U. inspector.

Solitude

In our modern day, with the pace that our civilization tries to establish and to maintain, a great many people are made nervous by peace and solitude. Our speed of life is such that usually, when we seek repose, we make a mad dash for it. But solitude has a hand to still the pulse's leap, a voice to calm and reassure. Solitude is a room into which we can retire whenever we need a change from present company. It is a bourse of solace and reflection.—American Magazine.

Endowed Sermon

Each year in St. Mary's church at Bury St. Edmunds, England, an endowed sermon, now 448 years old, is preached. The annual preaching of this sermon was provided for in the will of Jankyn Smith in the year 1481. It has been preached every year since that date. The will also provides that each almshouse inmate who attends the service shall receive a shilling.

"A Muckle for a Nickel"

A party of foreign visitors touring New York reported to the police that a Scotchman was missing. After weeks of search the tourist was found on a "Pay-as-you-leave" street car.

Farmer Must Help in Conservation of Feathered Friends; Birds Prove More Beneficial Than Detrimental

Throughout Lake county and the State of Illinois, farms afford a greater opportunity for the conservation of birds than any other medium. Even in Antioch there are an unusually great number of birds.

Almost without exception there is somewhere on every farm, a woodlot, small patches of shrubbery, or growths of shrubs and vines along fences. These make ideal covers for the birds both as nesting sites, and as shelters from the weather and from their predatory enemies. The osage orange hedges that a generation ago were so universally planted are occupied every summer by myriads of insectivorous birds and their thorny branches are a perfect protection for the nests of the brown-thrasher, catbird, many sparrows, goldfinches, doves, robins, and a host of other valuable destroyers of insects and weed seeds.

Grass and grain fields are sought by quail, meadow larks, boblinks, dickcissels, the vesper and other sparrows. If, on the farm there happens to be a bit of swamp land, there will be found bitterns, redwinged blackbirds, rails, killdeer, and in the northern counties in the lake region, the rare yellow-headed blackbirds.

Out in the open the beneficial hawks and owls, particularly the marsh hawk and short eared owl, forage over the fields destroying great quantities of injurious rodents.

Flicker Does Service

A more serious study of the food of our common birds would easily convince even the most skeptical farmer that the birds were of tremendous value to him; that no using of sprays, poisons, or setting of traps can compete with birds in their destruction of harmful insects. Add to this the enormous quantity of weed seeds destroyed each year by the members of the sparrow family, and the credit to birds becomes an item not to be figured in dollars and cents alone, but includes a feeling of sentiment for their cheerful songs as well.

The friendly flicker with his peculiar taste for ants, does a tremendous service, as a healthy adult bird requires thousands of ants to keep him in good condition.

During the early spring and again in early autumn, thousands of small birds, the warblers and vireos, visit gardens, orchards, forests and woodlots, seeking their choice tidbits, the different varieties of plant lice. So efficient are these tiny sprites that instances have been cited where a flock of warblers in a few days time entirely destroyed all of the plant lice in a badly infected grove.

It is well known that wherever chinch bugs are prevalent, the quail families feed on them when they emerge from the ground in the spring. In sections where the European corn borer has arrived, the downy woodpecker digs the borer out of the corn stalks. Crows, blackbirds and robins destroy cutworms, also the white grub which is the larva of the June bug. In northwestern Illinois the June bug occurs every third year in such numbers that frequently trees are entirely denuded of leaves by this hungry pest. Grasshoppers, the army worm, the tent caterpillar, the tussock moth, all are eagerly hunted by birds.

Both the yellow-billed and black-billed cuckoos feed on woolly caterpillars from choice, breaking down silky hairs by rubbing the insect on rough tree bark before swallowing.

Must Keep Birds

Charges are brought against certain birds for their destruction of fruit, but this is greatly offset by the enormous good done by birds in destroying insects.

A farm without bird life would lose one of its greatest attractions, and if the birds should disappear, the farmer himself would be first to note their absence, and he would also soon note damage to his growing grains and fruits which before would have been negligible.

In severe winters birds that remain throughout the year are often unable to find food and large numbers die from hunger and exposure. If the farmer would make the effort to feed the quail, cardinals, downy and hairy woodpeckers, chickadees, and others, many birds might be able to survive to work for him the following spring. Frequently birds that ordinarily migrate when cold weather appears, for some reason remain. It is not the severe cold that kills the birds, but the lack of food. The body heat of birds is greater than that of any other animal, and if he can "stoke his heating apparatus" he can stand very severe cold weather.

Where streams and ponds are kept free from ice, or at least portions of them, ducks may be induced to stay very late in autumn and sometimes all winter. Out in Lake Michigan, far enough so that there is open water, many ducks and geese are found every winter.

A well kept farm is always a thing of beauty, and if on the farm the bird life is protected, and added charm is given to the beauty of forest and field, meadow and pond. Owners of estates pay large sums of money for exotic birds with which to decorate their landscapes. The farmer in Illinois, if he is reasonably attentive to the needs of birds for food and shelter, may have the delight of having birds on his acres without cost, and greatly to his benefit financially.

What is more inspiring in early spring time, than the song of the meadow lark, the bluebird, the whistle of the bob-white, and the cardinal? The clearing of the forests, the cultivation of the prairies and the drainage of lakes and sloughs, have taken from the birds many of their natural homes and they have been compelled to readjust their lives.

Are Beneficial

Many other birds have followed the settlers and have appropriated orchards, windbreaks and hedges, so that in the instance of the robin, there has probably been an increase in place of a decrease in population in many of the prairie states.

Friendly caution is suggested against the indiscriminate killing of all hawks and owls, for more of these birds of prey are beneficial than detrimental.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has instigated exhaustive research into the value of our native birds, and bulletins are available describing the habits of most of the birds, and relating in detail their tastes in food.

The modern farmer should not only take advantage of all the knowledge at his command as to soils, fertilizers, crop rotation, and modern farm machinery, but he should also study and make use of the birds as a most efficient and valuable protection against the spreading and devastation of injurious insects and noxious weeds.

Fountain of Water Spout

An unusual disturbance of the air at sea which causes the currents to form a whirling motion sometimes leaves an inner portion almost void of air. The proper contact of this hollow twisting vacuum with the water may cause the water to be sucked up to fill the empty space. This forms the water spout.

Early Agriculture

The art of agriculture, the first step in civilization, was first practiced in the Near East—in Asia or Africa—according to archeological research, and the first grain growers are believed also to have been potters. These two arts spread into the Aegaeon area, to the plain of Hungary, to Switzerland and the Rhine country, and then to the Atlantic coast. It is now asserted that agriculture and the potter's art reached Britain at the dawn of the Neolithic age.
